EXCERPT FROM AD [REDACTED] DAILY LOG - 29 December 1970

25X1A

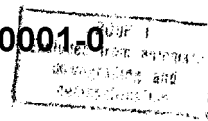

1. The DDI Executive Council attended an Honor Award ceremony this morning to honor [REDACTED] CRS, who received a Certificate of Distinction presented by [REDACTED] retires this week.

2. Mr. Smith chaired the Executive Council meeting. He discussed the Presidential letter addressed to several high officials, including the Secretaries of State and Defense, and the DCI, expressing President Nixon's increasing distress over disclosures of classified information in the public media. CIA action in regard to the letter includes formation of a committee consisting of Jack Coffey, Howard Osborn, and Gordon Stewart to conduct a rigorous review of our present system within CIA for releasing classified material. Two letters for Mr. Helms' signature will be drafted, one to all addressees of the Presidential letter on what CIA plans to do and the other to the heads of USIB members suggesting certain guidelines for the Intelligence Community.

Mr. Smith read to us Russell Baker's humorous satirical article in today's New York Times entitled "Is This Mind Necessary?"
